Sugar

Douwe Bob

Hey sugar
Your eyes tell the story your tongue couldn't
Let go of all that was cruel but you shoudn't
Feel so alone in the night
I've got to set it alive

How can you tell if something is real
All of your life, the truth has been concealed
Sugar I know, the way that you feel

Hey sugar
You got your rear to the steal as you try
To listen if something is rolling your way
You better wake up today

How can you tell if something is real
All of your life, the truth has been concealed
Sugar I know, the way that you feel

How can you tell if something is real
All of your life, the truth has been concealed
Sugar I know, the way that you feel
