

Take It All

Douwe Bob

He rings the doorbell, it's been too long
Since he has felt this way
And in her eyes he sees the distance
But he loves to see her anyway

All, take it all
Take it all
Ooh take it all

His hands are cold, her smile is warming
It's all she gives for now
Shouldn't this be easy?
Am I too young, or are you just too proud?

All, take it all
Take it all
Ooh take it all
All, take it all
Take it all
Ooh take it all

Some of us will never know
How to give their heart and soul
Some of us will never show

All, take it all
Take it all
Ooh take it all
All, take it all
Take it all
Ooh take it all
