

Remember Me

Dove Cameron

Please, remember me like this
Beautiful and talking shit
'Cause things get ugly way too quick
And right now we're just so perfect
So please, remember me just like

No shoes
Dancing 'round your living room
Pulling off my t-shirt
Putting on a show for you
We look good in black and white
Sipping on a glass of white
Magnify the city lights, right?
Swimming naked in the deep end
Make you wanna freeze frame, wait
Okay, I'm ready for my close up
Pin me like a poster
Faster, Testarossa, wait
Just in case, I am the one that gets away

Please, remember me like this
Beautiful and talking shit
'Cause things get ugly way too quick
And right now we're just so perfect
So please, remember me like this
Beautiful and delicate
'Cause things get ugly way too quick
And right now, we're just so perfect
So please, remember me just like this
Just like this
Just like

Running in the raindrops
City is a graveyard
Kissing at the train stop
We don't care if they watch
Nothing wrong with PDA
You and me can't hardly wait
Till we get back to your place
Stealing half your ice cream
Talking 'bout a pipe dream
Singing karaoke
Killing Backstreet
Touching in the photo booth
Something you can hold on to, babe
Just in case, I'm the one that gets away

Please, remember me like this
Beautiful and talking shit
'Cause things get ugly way too quick
And right now we're just so perfect
So please, remember me like this
Beautiful and delicate
'Cause things get ugly way too quick
And right now, we're just so perfect
So please, remember me just like this (Yo, Bia, Uh)

Remember me I play no games 'bout my legacy
Whats for me, ends up for me that bring the jealousy
They try to block but can't get in the way of destiny
I'm unapologetically free, that's why they envy me
Riding down Rodeo and I just took the top off
I'm still with the same friends, before we've seen the pop off
Some things just don't change, they stay the same 'cause
I got myself paid and I did not stop

Please, remember me like this
Beautiful and talking shit
'Cause things get ugly way too quick
And right now we're just so perfect
So please, remember me like this
Beautiful and delicate
'Cause things get ugly way too quick
And right now, we're just so perfect
So please, remember me just like this

Remember me
Remember me
(Just like this)
(Just like this)
