

Too Much

Dove Cameron

Player number one, game over

If you say I'm too much, baby, go find less
If you can't keep up, stay below, I guess
If I'm such a big deal, maybe you're too little
Ooh, ooh, it's tough, I'm too, too, too much

I can see
You're workin' really hard
Out of breath
But you're still at the start
Honey, please
You're breakin' your own heart
Shootin' for the stars
Shootin' in the dark

I, I should've seen the signs
You could never look me in the eye
I, I put you in the sky
Oh, it's so like you to put me down, down, down

If you say I'm too much, baby, go find less
If you can't keep up, stay below, I guess
If I'm such a big deal, maybe you're too little
Ooh, ooh, it's tough, I'm too, too, too much for you, babe

Oh-ah, oh-ah, baby, I ain't under pressure
Oh-ah, oh-ah, gather up, return to sender

"Doin' too much, puffin' up your chest
Where you goin' in that little red dress?
Who you doin' all that work for?" (Ah)
"Don't you wanna keep things private?
You're so pretty when you're so quiet
Can't you do it how I like, like it?
Say less, do less"

I, I should've seen the signs
You could never look me in the eye
I, I put you in the sky
Oh, it's so like you to put me down, down, down

If you say I'm too much, baby, go find less
If you can't keep up, stay below, I guess
If I'm such a big deal, maybe you're too little
Ooh, ooh, it's tough, I'm too, too, too much for you, babe

Oh-ah, oh-ah, baby, I ain't under pressure
Oh-ah, oh-ah, gather up, return to sender

I can see
Why you held on so hard
Not your fault
That it wasn't in the cards
Honey, please
I'm sending warm regards
And a box of your things in a black car

If you say I'm too much, baby, go find less
If you can't keep up, stay below, I guess
If I'm such a big deal, maybe you're too little
Ooh, ooh, it's tough, I'm too, too, too much for you, babe

Oh-ah, oh-ah, baby, I ain't under pressure (Where you goin', baby?)
Oh-ah, oh-ah, gather up, return to sender (It's too much)
Oh-ah, oh-ah, baby, I ain't under pressure (I can't feel my face)
Oh-ah, oh-ah, gather up, return to sender
