

Chocolate jerk

Down By Law

All used up
and nowhere to go
got a sad story to tell but who wants to know?
Its written on the walls
you sing it in the halls you're gonna have a ball who catches when you fall?
Don't look at me like that don't look at me at all
we all wanna know
its written on the walls
you're gonna have a blast who watches when you fall?
Can't look at me like that can't look at me at all
