

Gravity

Down with Webster

You were sitting tall, acting like you got it all
Royalty with your feet up in your castle
Thinking it's forever, but nothing's forever
Ya'll told me the top spot's not a two-seater
This game is such a teaser, be we never believed ya
Always had a buzz ever since I had a beeper
Been try'na "go, go, dog", shout to my retriever
See I never took a break but it's feeling like I'm back on Smoking 99 problems in a glass bong
And there's a girl at every party try'na latch on
But if you passed back then, pass on

When it comes, falling down
I'll be on top of it
So much for escaping gravity
And it's goodnight
When it comes, falling down
I'll be on top of it
There is no escaping gravity
And it's goodnight
But you can't hold me down
You can't hold me down now
But you can't hold me down
If you were on fire, wouldn't put you out
If you were on fire, wouldn't put you out now

You've been sitting tall, acting like you've got it all
Royalty with your feet up like an asshole
Thinking it's forever, but nothing's forever
Oh you a surfer, you try'na ride a wave
Hope standing on mine will strengthen up your legs
No staying to the beach, though, unless you're a babe
And that seat's taken so take it away
Back to the day when you told me I'd amount to nothing
I did it my own way and that should count for something
Used to wish to be the man and you wished I wasn't
Now I got the upper hand and I'm not bluffing

So much for escaping gravity
And it's goodnight
And when it comes, falling down
I'll be on top of it
There is no escaping gravity
But you can't hold me down
You can't hold me down now
But you can't hold me down
If you were on fire, wouldn't put you out
If you were on fire, wouldn't put you out now

It's okay, it's alright
Thinking that you're hot shit out at night
If you were on fire wouldn't put you out
If you were on fire wouldn't put you out
But it's okay, it's alright
Try to put me down, I know your type
If you were on fire wouldn't put you out
If you were on fire

But you can't hold me down
You can't hold me down now
But you can't hold me down
If you were on fire, wouldn't put you out
If you were on fire, wouldn't put you out now

When it comes, falling down
I'll be on top of it
When it comes, falling down
I'll be on top of it
There is no escaping gravity, and it's goodnight
