

Prove Yourself

Down with Webster

I gave it my all, oh oh oh
You answered the call, oh oh oh
I knew all along that after the fall
We would be all alone standin' tall
But we gave it our all, oh oh
(Prove yourself then)

We come for the shooter
Oh but we don't know his name
Told us the truth and oh
Now we're all one and the same
(Prove yourself, prove yourself)
(Prove yourself, prove yourself)
We come for the shooter
Oh but we don't know his name
Told us the truth and oh
Now we're all one and the same
(Prove yourself, prove yourself)

I knew in my soul, oh oh oh
We could have it all, oh oh oh
You trust in the end, I'll prove it again
Wish we could all afford a reason to bend
But we'll know in the end, end, end
(Prove yourself then)

We come for the shooter
Oh but we don't know his name
Told us the truth and oh
Now we're all one and the same
(Prove yourself, prove yourself)
(Prove yourself, prove yourself)
We come for the shooter
Oh but we don't know his name
Told us the truth and oh
Now we're all one and the same
(Prove yourself, prove yourself)

Now I know I told ya
That I was a soldier
But I thought it over
And I just can't hold ya anymore
'Cause we're getting older
And I won't control ya
But I just can't hold on anymore

(Prove yourself, prove yourself)
(Prove yourself, prove yourself)
We come for the shooter
Oh but we don't know his name
Told us the truth and oh
Now we're all one and the same
(Prove yourself, prove yourself)
(Prove yourself, prove yourself)

(Prove yourself, prove yourself)
(Prove yourself, prove yourself)
