If they shut down the churces where would you go
If they melted all the stain glass windows
Replaced every sanctuary, with a condo
Where would you go 2x

In a Kingdom that the eyes can see
We're a house, we are the bride
Where God's Spirit lives inside and nothing ever can stand agai

If they burn all the bibles what would you know
If they ....how would you grow
And declare your devotion to the criminal
What would you know 2x

When they throw you in prison what will you do
When they hate you for the things you know are true
They can tear down this temple but they can't touch you
