

When they excavate these ruins
Thousands of years from now
Will they wonder what I was doing
Who I was and what my life was about?

When my riches lie in ruin
On the landscape of my past
Will they uncover that I was pursuing
Things in life that really last?

Where your treasure is
It's the things you love own a part of you
And there will be your heart

So live in light of the future
Learn from yesterday
'Cause what we do now will echo forever
And we are only promised today

Where your treasure is
It's the things you love own a part of you
And where your treasure is
It's the things you love own a part of you
And there will be your heart

Should you dig for the Son of heaven
Some holy grail you hope to exhume
All that's left are the people who love Him
The greatest treasure is an empty tomb
