

Not About Wings

Downhere

Wake dove, stretch your feathers
Worry not love, how far you could fall
Fly now, darling find how
A broken wing can feel the best to soar on

It's not the perch you've climbed to reach
But the broken wing that's made you meek
That's when He lifts you high

Believing is not about seeing
Faith is not about reaching
And on this journey I keep learning
Flying is not about wings

Sparrow trapped by a window
Every resource spent for just one goal

It's not by work you find your escape
But in your defeat when you seek his face
That's when He lifts you high

Believing is not about seeing
Faith is not about reaching
And on this journey I keep learning
Flying is not about wings
