

Only the Beginning

Downhere

It's only beginning it's true
Just when I thought my time was through
Oh the stirring I feel inside
Is the voice I know I cannot deny

A surge of hope and full acceptance
Freedom deep as the blue

This is only the beginning
Press ahead forget what's behind
Forget what's behind
And the good work He is still perfecting
A new day, a new dream, a new life
This is only the beginning
Woah
This is only the beginning
Woah

The stream is swift and I step in
So I brace myself the adventure begins
I've seen things I never thought I'd believe
The Hand of God brings about mysteries

Rolling waves, rushing winds and water
Swept away and dripping with wonder

This is only the beginning
Press ahead forget what's behind
Forget what's behind
And the Good work He is still perfecting
A new day, a new dream, a new life
This is only the beginning
Woah
This is only the beginning
Woah

Rolling waves, rushing winds and wonder
Swept away and dripping with wonder

It's His calling, it's His fire,
This dream is real it's His Spirit inside me

This is only the beginning
Press ahead forget what's behind
Forget what's behind
And the Good work He is still perfecting
A new day, a new dream, a new life
This is only the beginning
Woah
This is only the beginning
Woah
This is only
Woah
This is only
Woah
This is only the beginning

It's only the beginning
