

Unbelievable

Downhere

Dust, generations, thousands of years of beautiful hope Men long gone before me, sang to God from this hymnbook
I can hear singing, I can hear singing

Oh, Your love is so unbelievable
It won't be long and we'll need another song to sing
Your love is so unbelievable, we sing through the ages
Your love is unbelievable

Buildings, stone by stone, choirs of angels still sing on Sunday mornings
Through the wood, and stained glass windows, paintings of story, dance in colour
I can hear singing, I can hear singing

And can it be that I should gain, unbelievable love, unbelievable love
Amazing grace how sweet the sound, unbelievable love,
unbelievable love
For the Lord God omnipotent reigns in unbelievable love

Songs, dust and ashes, I'm not afraid of my journey home

I can hear singing
