

Whatever Happens (Uncut Demo)

Downhere

Face buried in this cave,
Your promises look re-arranged,
How long have I to hide,
While the demons search the mountainside?
I don't want to lie down in fear,
Help me to remember clear,
There's never been a time when you haven't come through for me.

I lift my hands in a re- surrender,
Waiting on you to put this together.

I'm o.k. with,
I'm o.k. with,
Whatever happens,
I will follow You,
I will walk through
Whatever happens,
Through whatever happens.

Forty days and nights,
Haven't seen the outside.
Pitching and rolling around,
Sometimes this escape feels like a cage.
Although there's reason to fear,
The sky will never clear,
I can't think of a time when you haven't been there for me.

I lift my hands in a re-surrender,
The time will come when You'll put us back together
