

Furious Again

Downplay

Yeah
I'm so glad
I'll never be like you
Never be like you
Never be like that

I'm so glad
I'll never feel like you
Never feel like you
Never feel like

There's something
Shining like the ocean
Watching
Waiting
For you

To let it out
To give him a reason
That's what you do

You push until you shatter
The pieces that he tried to glue
Tear him down because you
Had something to prove

Don't apologize, you'll fake it
This is good advice, so take it

(I heard you had a gun)
Go on and use it
(I heard you had a gun)
Go on and use it
(I heard you had a gun)
Go on and use it
(I heard you had a gun)
Go on and
Go on and

Yeah
I'm so glad
I'll never be like you
Never be like you
Never be like that

I'm so glad I'll never feel like you
Never feel like you
Never feel like

He stares with some blank emotion
Dead eyes, dark mind
Wandering
Driven by some blind devotion
To show the world his lows
The weakness in his defense
Has been replaced
With steel revenge

The straw broke the camel's back
And now he's gotta go

Don't apologize, you'll fake it
This is good advice, so take it

(I heard you had a gun)
Go on and use it
(I heard you had a gun)
Go on and use it
(I heard you had a gun)
Go on and use it
(I heard you had a gun)
Go on and
Go on and

You got me furious
Oh
You got me furious

You got me furious
You got me furious

Don't apologize, you'll fake it
This is good advice, so take it

(I heard you had a gun)
Go on and use it
(I heard you had a gun)
Go on and use it
(I heard you had a gun)
Go on and use it
(I heard you had a gun)
Go on and
Go on and

Yeah
I'm so glad
I'll never be like you
Never be like you
Never be like that

I'm so glad I'll never feel like you
Never feel like you
