Downset

Let's keep it real
Let's keep it real
Let's keep it real
Real

And it's serious
And it's serious
You've got the right, the right
You've got the right not to love me
You've got the right not to love me

When my lips met your flesh
It didn't matter to me
But when you told me you love me
We bonded spiritually
And yes I held your body tight
Every moment we are separated you impede on the truest light
You doubt the realest love of your fate
You have the right to desecrate heaven's gate

And it's serious
And it's serious
You've got the right, the right
You've got the right not to love me
You've got the right not to love me
You've got the right, you've got the right
You've got the right not to love me

Trust is everything
Trust is everything
Trust is everything
Everything

Stunning exemplification of broken promise and hypocrisy
But when I told you I believe in you you said it meant everything
Let's engage in our warmest hopes again
Stunning exemplification of broken promise and hypocrisy
But when I told you I believe in you you said it meant everything
I'm so deep inside again

You've got the right, the right
You've got the right not to love me
You've got the right not to love me
You've got the right, you've got the right
You've got the right not to love me

When I raise my morning prayers
You know that I'm speaking your name
It's insecurity heartless restrictions and fears
Bring us pain
You say on the purest one
To ever embrace you
I am your angelic gift
Shining upon you

But I have the right to love you, love you
But I have the right to love you, love you

And I do!
