

Hear Me Now

Downset

Burn! Burn! Burn! Burn!

So you hear me now
Because the city is burning again
So you hear me now
Because the city is burning again
So you hear me now
Because the city is burning again
So you hear me now
Because the city is burning again

It's quite appalling that it has to get this bad again
In order for the state to realize our concerns
In the face of executive power
We never went away and will always rise and return

So you hear me now
Because the city is burning again
So you hear me now
Because the city is burning again
So you hear me now
Because the city is burning again
So you hear me now
Because the city is burning again

Burn! Burn! Burn! Burn!

I am not provoked by contemporary political ramifications
I've been consistent been dedicated
Do we have to commit massive acts of violence in order to be heard
This repetitive sequence of humanities is something we do not deserve

So you hear me now
Because the city is burning again
So you hear me now
Because the city is burning again
So you hear me now
Because the city is burning again
So you hear me now
Because the city is burning again

Burn! Burn! Burn! Burn!

Burning again
Burning again
Burning again

Burning again
Burning again
Burning again

From error to era
The impact of official terror
On our minds heart and culture could not be clearer
No superficial romanticist delusions
We must become the living breathing true solution

Burn!
