We've done our best
To break down the walls
Only to become a stage for flamboyant demigods
I don't believe we can express our truest moment
Until we embrace the simplistic nature
Of our fusion

One blood

I ain't gonna hold up
The dream will never foldup

Rebirth of the vision
That awoke us
Uprising side by side again
Building ain't lost that feeling
Believing the new dawn
True bonds add on
Chain of strength
Tribal solid steel stand strong
Score it like the same team
The same scene
Lock and link deep
You know what I mean?
