

Bloodstains

Doyle

A black coat
Sharp knife
My heart my is cold but my blood's on fire
And I was born
For the night
And your death is gonna fuel my desire

We'll meet on these dark streets
In the alleyways where the blood never fades

It stains
These nights of hell
Until you are mine
Bloodstains
These nights of hell
Till the end of time

A top hat
To shade my face
A light post where I'll leave you hanging to drain
A stuck pig
That's all you are
But once your dead I'm gonna make you a fucking star

We'll meet on these dark streets
In the alleyways where the blood never fades

It stains
These nights of hell
Until you are mine
Bloodstains
These nights of hell
Till the end of time

Slice
Kill
Bathe in their blood

Shatter their faith in the ones that they love

Slice
Kill
Bathe in their blood

I'll rip out your hearts because
Blood is better than love
Yeah, blood is better than love

Slice
Kill
Bathe in their blood

Shatter their faith in the ones that they love

Slice
Kill
Bathe in their blood

I'll rip out your hearts because
Yeah, blood is better than love

The bloodstains
These nights of hell
Until you are mine
Bloodstains
These nights of hell
Until the end of time

Bloodstains
You can't wash them away
Bloodstains
You'll never wash them away
Bloodstains
Bloodstains
You'll never wash them away
