

Run for Your Life

Doyle

[Verse]

No one will see us coming
You are the innocent, die on your knees
Your death is just a moment away

Can't help get a funny feeling
I wanna see you dead at my feet
I'll kill off anything in my way

Screams
The only sound
Dead plaguing the ground

Run for your life
Fight to survive
Your only hope is to die
Run for your life
Fight to survive
Your only hope is to die

Girl you look so good in teardrops
I wanna see you dressed in your blood
Cause one nightmare is never enough

Can't help get a funny feeling
I'll give you every inch of my love
My loss will shake the heavens apart

Screams
The only sound
Dead blanket the ground

Run for your life
Fight to survive
Your only hope is to die
Run for your life
Fight to survive
Your only hope is to die

Screams
The only sound
Dead blanket the ground

Run for your life
Fight to survive
Your only hope is to die
Run for your life
Fight to survive
Your only hope is to die
