

Mito

I spread my wings, just to take you in
What a life it's been, on the highest wings
When I'm alone, I let my world explode
Then I'll sink the remains below
And I keep it there until there's nothing left of me

Oh-oh-oh
I gave up long ago
So you could dream it all
But now I stand alone
Oh-oh-oh
I broke down all my doors
Oh, do you see it now?
Nothing was fixed at all

I never asked to be like this
I never asked to be like this
I never asked to be like this

No
