

Violet Crazy

DPR IAN

The midnight darkness in her eyes
Oh
A thousand voices shattered through the night
Seconds only pass you by
A thousand reasons for me to turn off your lights

You're violet crazy
It's what I'm meant to be
There was no silence, baby
Between you and me
And it drives me crazy
Is this meant to be?
I've been so tired lately
Will you set me free?

We'll dance until we say goodbye
A thousand miles between
There are only blue, blue skies
Tell me where we are
In a fallen star
And as your eyes light up
Catch me in a fairy tale

You're violet crazy
It's what I'm meant to be
There was no silence, baby
Between you and me
And it drives me crazy
Is this meant to be?
I've been so tired lately
Between you and me
