

Someday

Dr. Dog

There's a tree
Outside my home
The sidewalks cracked out where it's roots have grown

Someday came and then left me alone.
I should've known back then
That I stayed too long

I should've known better
I should've known better
I should've known better
I should've known better
But I don't believe I can.

If my feet
Could carve stone
They'd mark a monument
that is never wrong

I was a man
I turned to bone
I never moved and now my
My will is gone

I should've known better
I should've known better
I should've known better
I should've known better
But I don't believe
No I don't believe
I don't believe I can
