Who's gonna water my plants
Who's gonna patch my pants
And who's gonna give me the chance
To feel brand new

Who's gonna iron my shirts Who's gonna kiss where it hurts And who needs a man when he flirts The way I do

Who, if not you Who, if not you

Who, if not you
Tell me who, if not you

Who's gonna wake me on time Who'll smile and say I look fine And who's gonna stay on my mind The whole day through, girl

Who's gonna see that I'm fed And who's gonna want me in bed But who'll watch TV instead Because I do

Who, if not you Tell me who, if not you
