

Carry On

Draconian

The world of dreams will help you carry on! Carry on!
Climb high with your sharp claws dug in the old mountain's stone...

...BECAUSE The summit is not so far away so as to throw down your indomitable spirit towards the shadows that await for you below... Carry on!

Climb upwards the sky and carve
with wild burning runes
the swords of your name in the dome of eternity follow your way without turning back and keep your faith...

carry on! Carry on!
Dreams are like stars...
Impossible to reach but you go on dreaming of reaching them dark thoughts lie in waiting for you like a roaring lion for his prey heartbeats of fury, quivering with anger safeguard your legacy... Carry on!

carry on!!
