

Dark Oceans

Draconian

"I know that light is not for me, save that of the moon. And I know always that I am an outsider, stranger in this century."

Dark oceans we cry...
God wonders why.
Gut we see ourselves
In darkness with our love.
Abandoned by time and space,
We are still alive, we are not alone.
We are one under the banner
Of the fallen angel!
