

Draconian Attack

Draconian

We're the everlasting fire core of every energy the solid and heroic heart (chorus) our empire covers all power and glory

we're ready to face hell we're ready to take off and fly get ready to shout the war yell!
The night is falling upon our heads and...

Draconian attack! (ehh!)
The legions fill up the skies
draconian come back!
Victory is our banner
draconian attack! (ehh!)
Rise up into the stars
draconian come back!
Deep echoes in the air awake the moonlight silver beams lighten up our iridescent scales our roar resounds in the vastness drawing circles and spirals in the cristal sky our big yellow eyes are opening behind the cristal-lyke webs our large almond pupils widen...

...when in the darkness of the cave we fly and...

Draconian attack!
