

Dusk Mariner

Draconian

No light finds me
Perish like the setting sun
No truth defies me
Unburdened like the fallen one

I'd give you my love
But it's freezing cold
My lips ever sealed
And the things I have done
Are slowly growing old,
Yet dying to be healed

No heart guides me
Frozen in the depths below
No fear leaves me
I'm haunted by a distant soul

She gives me her voice
She gives me her soul
Yet demons in my view
As fear breaks down
I weep to understand
I was already you

Living in a circle of decay
Where morn remains the night
Under these starless skies
Love's out of sight

Breathe carelessly,
Be all you feared as a child
See, it's only me
And not the heavens
Coming down on you

No light finds me

She gives me her voice
She gives me her soul
This angel in my view
As fear breaks down
I weep to understand
I was already you

We were living in a circle of decay
Where morn remains the night
Under these starlit skies
Love marks our flight

Farewell!
