

Future Angel

Draconian

You were born in hard times but a circle protects you primal wickedness lies and awaits only the spell is your guardian the spell of creation has come true ancient & beautiful prayer the strength of life against the eternal chaos a new battle which doesn't decide the war that's the way it's been ordered you must know you are not alone rock and ride on its breath once and again...

So that when you learn and feel its power you'll battle in countless days you'll ride on its breath and you'll win

sleep quietly in the draco's arms inside his circle you don't have to be afraid...

Future angel (future)
we can't wait anymore future angel (angel)
we can't stand anymore

rock and ride on its breath once and again...

We can't anymore
