

Mad Punks

Dragged Under

I'm seeing doubles. I'm hearing echoes
Cause you're all the same

Twice the fashion sense, as you've got common sense
Pretend punks, protest under pretense

But you're not mad anymore?
Or you just do what your told

What do you stand for?

Now I don't see you
And I don't hear you
Where did you go?
Over dramatic
You really put on quite a show
How did it go from
Violent to compliant
Still as bad as it was before
But I don't see you
And I don't hear you
I wanna know

Where'd all the mad punks go
Life in a bubble. Recite the talking points
And play the game
Say what your told to say
Facts don't matter anyway
Why practice empathy
When you can silence all your enemies

But you're not mad anymore?
Or you just choose to ignore

Now I don't see you
And I don't hear you
Where did you go?
Over dramatic
You really put on quite a show
How did it go from
Violent to compliant
Still as bad as it was before
But I don't see you
And I don't hear you
I wanna know

Whered all the mad punks gooooo

The elected that you treat like kings
Keep pulling on your puppet strings

And I don't hear you
Where did you go?
Over dramatic
You really put on quite a show
How did it go from
Violent to compliant

Still as bad as it was before
But I don't see you
And I don't hear you
I wanna know

Whered all the mad punks gooooo

The punks go
The punks go
The punks go
The punks go

Where'd all the mad punks goooooo
