

Suffer

Dragged Under

Tell me would you suffer for me?
Cause I'll suffer for you

Suffer!
(Tell me would you suffer for me?
Cause I'll suffer for you)

Wake to a nightmare your hand in mine
Blurry and nervous, I'm paralyzed
Trapped in a fire, we can't put out
Hoping that we could keep this up somehow

Buried deep underneath, all alone in between
I just need you to tell me!

Tell me would you suffer for me?
Cause I'll suffer for you
Will you be here when the world starts to bleed
Or will it tear us in two?

Suffer!

Faking a smile as I neglect
The warmth from the wolves breathing down my neck

Out of my sight, scarred in my mind
Promised you everything, but left you behind

Tell me would you suffer for me?
Cause I'll suffer for you
Will you be here when the world starts to bleed
Or will it tear us in two?

And I'm trapped in my own hell
But I don't wanna be here by myself

So tell me would you suffer for me?
Cause I'll suffer for you
Suffer for you

Suffer
Suffer
Suffer
Suffer
Suffer

Tell me would you suffer for me?
Cause I'll suffer for you
Will you be here when the world starts to bleed
Or will it tear us in two?

And I'm trapped in my own hell
But I don't wanna be here by myself

So tell me would you suffer for me?
Cause I'll suffer for you

Suffer

Tell me would you suffer for me?
Cause I'll suffer for you
