

Same Old Blues

Dragon

People walkin' in the city
Catchin' buses, they're so dirty
Everyday is just another day
In the shadow world

Hey babe, dance with me
Hey babe, Last Chance Cafe
Babe you know it's just another dream
That you're fadin'

But sometimes I'm thinkin' 'bout my destiny
Sometimes, illusions are no part of me
And people run around
People get that feet off the ground
Undertaker with the old soft shoe
Oh they run around and everywhere you go
You get the same old blues

Caught a madman up my cellar wall
Crying Jesus protect me from the war
The war's inside you friend I told him with my gun
I was shakin'

Three candles lying in the summer sun
Sad things will change, today I feel the same
Bartender set me up, my day has just begun
Oh no

But sometimes, when I'm thinkin' 'bout my destiny, yeah
Sometimes, that woman is a part of me
In my heart I feel it, yeah
And people run around
People get that feet off the ground
Undertaker with the old soft shoe
Oh they run around and everywhere you go
You get the same old blues

Same old, you got the same old blues
Same old, you got the same old blues
You got the same old, you got the same old blues
You got the same old, you got the same old blues
Same old, you got the same old blues
Same old, you got the same old blues
Same old, you got the same old blues
Same old, you got the same old blues
Same old

Somebody, sometime everywhere around the world
You can't fight it, you can't hide it
You got the same old, same old, same old, same old blues
