

Stormy

Dragonette

Throwing things across the living room
You pick the pieces up, I get the glue
Some days don't roll out quite the way you wish they would
And my apologies are out of tune

Oh, the forces of nature
Split apart the strongest tree
A hurricane can cause a fuss
But nothing gets as stormy as me

Oh, what a chance to know the heart of me (What a chance)
It fills up to the top and overflow
Fight for control of my main artery
So forgive my messy insides when they show

Oh, the forces of nature
Watch them scorch the bluest sky
A monsoon sure can make a mess
But nothing gets as stormy as I

Oh, the forces of nature
Toss around the deepest sea
An earthquake might just bury us
But nothing gets as stormy as me
