

Thorn

Dragonette

Blue
That's the shade
I paint all over you
I feel my fingernails are cutting through
I can do so much damage
And I do
Just so

I can be the thorn to draw blood from you
Ya I can be the thorn to draw blood from you

Pull me closer
Shake my shoulders
Tell me this isn't cool
Ask me why I need to
Sink my teeth
So deep inside of you
I can do so much damage
Just to prove

That I can be the thorn to draw blood from you
Ya I can be the thorn to draw blood from you
Ya I can be the thorn to draw blood from you
I can be the thorn to draw blood from you

Oh my love
Even when it hurts
Ain't we still calling it that baby
Ya come on
Hold your roses closer

So I can be the thorn to draw blood from you
Ya I can be the thorn to draw blood from you
Ya I can be the thorn to draw blood from you
I can be the thorn to draw blood from you
