Storming the Burning Fields

DragonForce

Bursting through the fires avenging Fatal warning battles are raging Power of darkness rise for the fight We'll be strong and stand our ground

Death is all around us and my heart is beating weaker Fight the day with power of immortal souls arise Fire in our hearts the evil rages on forever more Burning until the battle rage is gone

Through damnation we rise, sign of the times Master of bleeding eyes
Thunder on high, look to the sky
You never gonna take us down!

And we will crush the evil standing
On the temple in the fire storming
Fly beyond the lost horizons high
Heroes of the night are calling
See the promised land is falling
Reaching for the powers deep inside
On through the night

Blinded by the hate and desire Burning in your heart like a fire Challenging all the suffer and fear Our horizons take control

Blood spills all around us and our enemies draw nearer Sacrifice your life to have them carry you away Take us to the plains of death and carry on forever more Burning on the dreams of memories long gone

And you'll die for your crimes, sign of the times Master of endless lies
Fight to the end, now we ascend
Together we will take them down

And we will crush the evil standing on the temple in the fire s torming...
