

Where Dragons Rule

DragonForce

Full the moon and midnight sky,
Through the dark they ride
Warriors of forever will sacrifice their right
One for all and all for one, the future time has come Faces filled with torment, your heart beats like a drum
Never you will look back again,
You'll fight on 'til the end
Together we will live on forever more....

In this land we have defended,
from all things dark and cruel
Now we are defenceless in the land where dragons rule

In this land we have defended,
from all things dark and cruel
Now we are defenceless in the land where dragons rule

Dragons rule....

Flashing steel in the midday sun, the battle has begun Blood spills all around us, but still we carry on No mercy we will show to them,
The white flag shall be raised
We'll fight for our freedom,
Ride toward's this evil place

We all stand until the end,
our allegiance to this game

In this land we have defended,
from all things dark and cruel
Now we're defenceless in the land where dragons rule

In this land we have defended,
from all things dark and cruel
Now we're defenceless in the land where dragons rule

Sunsets in the western sky, the battles almost done
The victory will be glorious, our enemies are gone

We all stand until the end,
our allegiance to this game

In this land we have defended,
from all things dark and cruel
Now we're defenceless in the land where dragons rule

In this land we have defended,
from all things dark and cruel
Now we're defenceless in the land where dragons rule

In this land we have defended,
from all things dark and cruel
Now we're defenceless in the land where dragons rule

In this land we have defended,
from all things dark and cruel

Now we're defenceless in the land where dragons rule

In this land we have defended,
from all things dark and cruel
Now we're defenceless in the land where dragons rule

Dragons rule....
