

Black Shadow

DragonHeart

A pariah born in these dry lands
A creature as old as the time that we live
Ancient gods trembling in front of it
Torment and fire are their catacombs
You can't understand their pain
All their strength are gathered in the mind
Use your head, the shadow in their eyes
Will take you to it
Scream here, freedom is distant now
Fight here, with your blood and spells

(Chorus)

Black Shadow - Torment and fire we see
Black Shadow - Agony of all minds
Black Shadow - Move into the stones
Black Shadow - You can't change what you are

Psychic pain magic and mist
You need to use them to cross rivers of blood
Here lies the victory of the Alliance
Against the evil of Shadow Land

Slaughtered minds, I can feel them all
Replace the horror face of divinity
You may be lost when the perversion has ended
Eyes burning into flames, the victory is mine
Fight here with your blood and spells

(Chorus)

You can't understand their pain
Use your head
Eyes burning into flames, the victory is mine
Fight here with your blood and spells

(Chorus)
