

The Orcish March

Dragonland

Music: Magnusson, Holmlid Lyrics: Magnusson, Heidgert

"From the darkest caverns and dankest caves of Dragonland the dark hordes of undead and nightly creatures of the dusk crept forth.

Awakened by thy evil one incarnate..."

From a sunless domain we march

Death to all we have no hearts

In our veins runs a burning blood

Which only the killing can quench

Thirst for death guides our way

Born of the night, for evil we fight

Seeing the world in grey, no joy, no love

To walk against this is our way

I call upon my servants the goblins, trolls and orcs

We shall march into human lands and we shall burn their homes

We thunder towards the light

Yes, entranced we're stalking the night

The heavens now are burning

We will bring the end to all

Undying shades in a world of lights

That we are and in forever we'll be

For we know we will win this war

And will sing of the darkened hordes

I shall erect my throne upon a mountain of their bones

Then oh my children we shall drink their blood
