

Darkness Within

Dragony

(Rudolph:)

I have fought so hard and I tried as I might, but I cannot win this fight

There's a shadow creeping in my soul a monster, claw and bite
Give in to madness, and the number of the beast
Gaze in the abyss, and join in the feast

Break the chains, open the gate
I call the ordnance of sin
Infernal fire, the engines of hate
I feel the darkness within

(Tesla:)

I'm returning now to the lands of my birth, in an answer to you r call

There's a darkness here, and a lust for death, as the serpent t akes control

(Rudolph:)

Call out to demons, and the servants of the beast
Oh fallen angels, I am your priest

Break the chains, open the gate
I call the ordnance of sin
Infernal fire, the engines of hate
I feel the darkness within

(Rudolph & Tesla:)

And by our deeds we are agents of the Fall
We are the curse of mankind
And in this war that will swallow the Earth whole
We'll leave destruction behind

Break the chains, open the gate
I call the ordnance of sin
Infernal fire, the engines of hate
I feel the darkness within

Break the chains, open the gate
Let the madness come in
Infernal fire, the engines of hate
Embrace the darkness within
