

Eternia Eternal (The Masters Of The Multiverse)

Dragonfy

Forged in the fires
And the darkest depths of war
We're riding out to fight the hordes
Of evil Skeletor

Chosen by the sorceress
Wings of falcon, soaring flight
A prince called to the castle
To join the epic fight

Wielder of the power
Warrior divine
And darkness would devour
Where light refused to shine

Eternia arise!
Your glory is forever
Land of our freedom
Our great endeavour

Eternia alight!
For we all have the power
The Masters of the Multiverse
Are rising up to fight

The battle is still raging
Yet the dawn of victory
In the wars that we are waging
Is clear for us to see

The cosmic keys will open
The gates of destiny
The circle is unbroken
Our souls will yet be free

Joining our forces
With all that's good and right
History and its courses
Are ours now to write

Eternia arise!
Your glory is forever
Land of our freedom
Our great endeavour

Eternia alight!
For we all have the power
The Masters of the Multiverse
Are rising up to fight

Hear us singing the hymns of power
The songs of might and all that is true
And the masters of the night
They will never subdue
The force of light

The sword holds magic mysteries

Of tales from long ago
Of heroes and their histories
And of legends that we know

Raise it high to heaven
