

Evermore

Dragony

As we are cast into darkest streams
Into the cold heart of the machine
We are forever damned to be
The dreamers in our dreams

Into these worlds of harmonies
Hidden inside their mysteries
Within the shadows lurks a heart
That darkness tears apart

Inside the dream
We are looking for the answers to
The mysteries of life and find
That nothing's as it seems

On a journey through time
We shall follow the sign
In the secrets of Evermore
We are lost in darkness and blind

All eyes on us!
We are the warriors of history
Our minds will set us free

Into the heart of darkness on
To the edge of tomorrows gone
We must wander on and fight
Until the battle's won

Changing faces, changing names
It's all a part of his wicked game
A mind of metal plots and schemes
And sees the world in flames

The universe is burning, and we're the ones to blame

On a journey through time
We shall follow the sign
In the secrets of Evermore
We are lost in darkness and blind

All eyes on us!
We are the warriors of history
Our minds will set us free

I see the signs
Between the lines
Hidden secrets
Within these confines

See how they shine
All the answers we find
Sins are forgiven
And the darkness unwinds

On a journey through time
We shall follow the sign

In the secrets of Evermore

All eyes on us!
We are the warriors of history
Our minds will set us free

We are unbound
Secrets of Evermore
