

Fallen Star

Dragony

Stay awhile and listen
To the secrets of this town
Where darkness once reigned
And an angel did come down

The truth of the ags
Did he speak to us
And as star fell to earth he returned

And so the story repeats once again
Bathed in sadness and fire and rain

Winds of fortune guide us safe through our fate
Beyond stormy seas and tempests from afar
Dark the thoughts are in my heart of late
Woe to you who beheld the Fallen Star

Stray not from the path
Lest the dark devour all
Twixt hell and heaven's wrath
We must fught or we will fall

The gates of heavens
Are forever closed
And the Prime Evil threatens to rise

And so the story repeats once again
Bathed in sadness and fire and rain

Winds of fortune guide us safe through our fate
Beyond stormy seas and tempests from afar
Dark the thoughts are in my heart of late
Woe to you who beheld the Fallen Star

Sail across the waters on the distant lands
Time will run like sand through your empty hands

Still is now the night
But the battle rages on
Between dark and light
We must stand and carry on

Down in the deep
The lord of evil sleeps
But the story will repeat itself once more

Winds of fortune guide us safe through our fate
Beyond stormy seas and tempests from afar
Dark the thoughts are in my heart of late
Woe to you who beheld the Fallen Star
