

The Dead Queen's Race

Dragony

From the grave she'll rise, a Queen of the Dead
Bringing forth a force of hell-spawn
There's no hope for us, the Empress of Dread
Damning us all to a dark dawn

Thunder rolling
Lightning crashing down
Fallen angel
Bear thy crown

Rising from the ashes
We must run, just to stay in place
Fly as lightning crashes
Run to live, to win the Dead Queen's Race

I am returned, lift the veil off my grave
Hail the queen of fallen heroes
I command you all, both weak and the brave
Witness the world in its death throes

Thunder rolling
Lightning crashing down
Fallen heroes
Behold the crown

Rising from the ashes
We must run, just to stay in place
Fly as lightning crashes
Run to live, to win the Dead Queen's Race

Ancient forces
Breaking out
Death enforces
Leaves no doubt

Endless and ancient
The queen reigns!
Timeless and ageless
Unchained!

Thunder rolling
Lightning crashing down
Fallen angel
Bear thy crown

Rising from the ashes
You must run, just to stay in place
Fly as lightning crashes
Run to live, can't win the Dead Queen's Race

Rising from the ashes
You must run, just to stay in place
Fly as lightning crashes
Run to live, can't win the Dead Queen's Race
