

Couldn't Care Less

DRAIN

"I wanted you but he was there"
And that's fair
Because it shows how much you really cared
How much you loved me
How you think of me
How you must think I'm some fucking dummy
You thought wrong

"If you don't wanna do this
Then you'd better get up and leave"
Leave your friends, your home, everyone you love
And when they're gone, you'll crawl back to me
I disagree
I disagree

(I could not care less)

I couldn't care less about the shit that you do
And I couldn't care less about the guys you're into
You told me to leave, and maybe you'll see
That when you're alone you'll be thinking of me

And I'll be thinking of you
All the kisses goodnight
And the tables for two
Once my partner in crime
Now lost in the line
Of yesterday's lovers
That left me behind

(I could not care less)

I couldn't care less about the shit that you do
And I couldn't care less about the guys you're into
You told me to leave, and maybe you'll see
That when you're alone you'll be thinking of you
