

Devil's Itch

DRAIN

Been spit through the ringer
Too many times
We stood up, we shut up
'Cause life doesn't apologize

It keeps on swinging

Cut out from a different cloth
Blood, sweat, but never tears

We take the pain, you break
And then cry to anyone who's gonna fucking listen

Victimized
Every day of your fragile life
Got a message for you and all your friends
"Go fuck yourself"
Life's rough
I just make it look good

I've learned everything I know from my mistakes
No one held my fucking hand
Found out the hard way

That's how I know you'll break
When the pressure's on, you're gonna run away

Everybody wants to put you down until they've got something to gain
Fuck you
