

Feel The Pressure

DRAIN

I feel the pressure of a thousand eyes
Staring at me
They want to see me fall
They keep tabs and they don't know how to feel
They don't know me at all

Never took the chance to find out
But it never really mattered anyways
They want to look like a helping hand
But they're just snakes in the grass
And they're never gonna catch up to me

Because I'm not like you
I won't do what you want me to
I don't care what you think of me
You wouldn't say it to me anyways

I feel the pressure of a thousand eyes
Staring at me
They want to see me fall
HA-HA
Yeah right man! You won't see me at all

Because I'm not like you
I won't do what you want me to
I don't care what you think of me
You wouldn't say it to me anyways
Because I'm not like you
I won't do what you want me to
I don't care what you think of me
You wouldn't say it to me anyways

Go ahead make my day

Because I'm not like you
I won't do what you want me to
I don't care what you think of me
You wouldn't say it to me anyways
Because I'm not like you
I won't do what you want me to
I don't care what you think of me
You wouldn't say it to me anyways
