

Living in a Memory

DRAIN

Don't wanna talk about the past
I'm here right now
What, you think I fucking peaked?
'Cause you're too blind to see

What's really going on? Who's here? Who's gone?
I've seen enough, I've seen it all

I can't wait till they forget
'Cause everything they love is everything I hate
And I ain't ever going back
Just let me be who I am

I never dream of yesterday
I'm right where I wanna be
I can't be stuck living in a memory

Ya know I heard it all before
I was there, you weren't
It's not as special as it seemed
But you're too blind to see

What's really going on? Who's here? Who's gone?
I've seen enough, I've seen it all

I can't wait till they forget
'Cause everything they love is everything I hate
And I ain't ever going back
Just let me be who I am, let the past be the past

Yeah
Oh, yeah
