

Hollywouldn't

Drake Bell

Holly won't, Holly wouldn't go
Holly please, you said you would

Holly, would you come back home to me?
We just don't fit in this city
We're just not right for this city
Hollywood it seemed alright to me
I thought that it'd be pretty
But these streets are filled with pity

So let's go, it's not quite what it seems
So let's go, it shattered my dreams

Holly won't, Holly wouldn't go
Holly please, you said you would
Holly won't, Holly wouldn't go
Holly please, you said you would

I walk this boulevard of broken screams
I shout but no one hears me
If only you were near me
Holly, would you tell me what it means?
Would you spare me more rejection?
Would you give me some direction?

So I'd know just how to play the scene
Or would you go and shatter my dreams?

Holly won't, Holly wouldn't go
Holly please, you said you would
Holly won't, Holly wouldn't go
Holly please, you said you would

I tried so hard, I thought she understood
We made our plans for running out on Hollywood
But Holly wouldn't, Holly won't

Holly won't, Holly wouldn't go
Holly please, you said you would
Holly won't, Holly wouldn't go
Holly please, you said you would

I tried so hard, I thought she understood
We made our plans for running out on Hollywood
But Holly wouldn't, Holly won't
