

It's Never Last Call

Drake Bell

If only I could show you how Everything looks right now
I'd change the words that
I have spoken
And if I hadn't crashed my car
You wouldn't have to go so far
To find that I was Always broken

I'm hoping that your door
Is still open

You say I wake up too late
But I don't
I say that we should sleep in
But you won't
It's never over 'til it starts
Again
You know that I've never
Acquired the taste
For having my life
Thrown back in my face
It's never over 'til it starts
Again

So baby, let me in
I lost my keys again

I really don't think you know
How everything moved
So slowly on the night
That you first said it
But everything must remain
And everything stays the same
When I remember
To forget it

I hope that I never regret it

You say I wake up too late
But I don't
I say that we should sleep in
But you won't
It's never over 'til it starts
Again
You know that I've never
Acquired the taste
For having my life
Thrown back in my face
It's never over 'til it starts
Again

So baby, let me in
Unlock the doors again

You say I wake up too late
But I don't

I say that we should sleep in
Again
Acquired the taste
For having my life
Again

So baby, let me in
You locked the doors again
