

Unbelievable

Drake Bell

Whoa
Whoa
Whoa
Whoa

I never thought you'd leave
And take your broken heart from me
I really didn't think so

You said you'd be moving on
To find a house with a greener lawn and you know
I really didn't think so

Now I'm back in LA
Did I make a mistake?
Is it all how you planned?
Do you have a new man?
In the palm of your hand?
Did I give you away?

And it's so unbelievable
So unbelievable
I won't believe it until you tell me it's
So unbelievable
So unbelievable
I won't believe it until you tell me it's so

Whoa
Whoa
Whoa

I wasted every day
You thought that I could change, it's strange
I really didn't think so

They said you'd be coming back
I smiled when you told me that, but you know
I really didn't think so

Whoa

Now I'm back in LA
And I'm over my head
Face down in my bed
This is not what I planned
And I don't understand
Why I give you away?

And it's so unbelievable
So unbelievable
I won't believe it until you tell me it's
So unbelievable
So unbelievable
I won't believe it until you tell me it's so

So tell me that you let me know
That if I loved you, I would let you go

'Cause I could never believe you could leave
I'd be telling yourself, I don't think so

'Cause it's so unbelievable
So unbelievable
I won't believe it until you tell me it's
So unbelievable
So unbelievable
I won't believe it until you tell me it's
So unbelievable
So unbelievable
I won't believe it until you tell me it's
So unbelievable
So unbelievable
I won't believe it until you tell me it's so

Whoa
Whoa
