

Bad Day To Be A Beer

Drake Milligan

Got the boat on the water
And the sun's getting hotter by the minute
A bunch of nothin' planned
And a cooler full of cold cans in it
If the fish don't bite
It'll be alright cause

Life is good and right now it's only getting better
And if I had my way I'd be buzzin' out here forever
All my 12 oz. buddies are about to disappear
It's a good day to be me, it's a bad day
To be a beer

I don't blame this brewski
For sweatin' like it's guilty of something
Laying in the ice it had to know
It's time was coming
Call it destiny
Think I'll raise one up for me cause

Life is good and right now it's only getting better
And if I had my way I'd be buzzin' out here forever
All my 12 oz. buddies are about to disappear
It's a good day to be me, it's a bad day
To be a beer

I'm sorry I don't know how to thank ya
I love ya but someone's gotta drink ya

And all my 12 oz. buddies are about to disappear
It's a good day to be me, it's a bad day
A good day to be me, it's a bad day
A good day to be me, it's a bad day
To be a beer
